The service is provided to clients of account holders in those branches (CSU) of the Bank that are equipped with deposit boxes.

The Bank's expenses for making a copy of the keys or repairing the deposit box in connection with the loss of the keys by the Client, are reimbursed by the Client, including;

In case of loss of one of the two keys provided to the Client, chargeable fee - 15,000 AMD

In case of loss of both pairs of keys provided to the Client, or damage to the lock of the deposit box, chargeable fee - 50,000 AMD.

In the case that the Client does not vacate the deposit box after the expiration of the period set by the rent agreement, the rent agreement continues to be valid, each time being extended by the Bank without acceptance, for the duration of the original agreement. However, for each renewal period, the customer's account(s) will be charged at the rate published on the renewal date. Renewal in this way is carried out as long as the funds in the Client's account(s) are sufficient to charge off the tariff, otherwise no more than 1 (one) year.

Expenses set in paragraphs 2 and 3 of these Terms shall be charged by the Bank without acceptance from the Client's account(s), if necessary, converting currencies at the rate set by the Bank.

If the client or his legal representative does not vacate the deposit-box after 1 (one) year, set in paragraph 3 of these Terms, the Bank reserves the right to open a deposit-box without the presence and / or additional permission of the Client, if case of valuable things presence, inventory and move them to a common storage room

* non-resident customers are charged for double rate
