2. Subject of Regulation and Application of the Terms

2.1 The present Terms define the procedure and terms for opening and maintaining (servicing) accounts, providing other banking services by the Bank, including custodian and investment services, and regulate the contractual relations between the Bank and the Client, and the Partner (collectively referred to as the Parties) related to the above.

2.2 By using the services of the Bank, as well as signing the contract (including the application-contracts) with the Bank, the Client declares that s/he accepts these Terms and Tariffs, understands their meaning and is aware that they are binding on the Client and the Bank and have contractual force.

2.3 The Client may familiarize himself with the Terms at the information stands located in the head office and branches, as well as on the Bank's official website www.ardshinbank.am, where the Terms have the same legal force and applicability. In case of discrepancies the terms published on the website shall prevail.

2.4 The Bank may provide individual services and operations on the basis of other contracts, as well as other rules and conditions established by the Bank. These Terms are considered an integral part of the said conditions and govern also the contractual relationship between the Bank and the Client in connection with provision of other banking services, including custodian and investment services, unless otherwise established by special agreements and terms of individual services.

2.5 If the provisions established by law, the normative legal acts of the Central Bank of RA, as well as by additional written consent between the Bank and the Client, including the Application-Contract, differ from the provisions established by the General Terms, then the provisions of the said acts shall prevail.

2.6 The Terms, the Tariffs, as well as the guides, the annexes and other documents related to banking services are approved by the Bank and may be changed and updated from time to time by the latter unilaterally, except for cases of setting individual tariffs for the Client that are not subject to publication. The Bank, at its own discretion, publishes the amendments and supplements by means of public media. Thus, the Bank publishes information on amendments and supplements:

2.6.1 on the Bank's website and (or)

2.6.2 by placing announcements on information stands at the Bank's branches and other Client service units and (or)

2.6.3 by sending information to the email addresses of the Clients and (or)

2.6.4 by other means that allow the Client to receive this information and make sure that it is received from the Bank.

The Bank shall, at its sole discretion, publish information by one or more of the above methods. Amendments to the Terms and the Tariffs shall come into force on the 7th working day after their publication on the Bank's official website www.ardshinbank.am, unless the Bank establishes another term for the entry into force of these changes. In this case, the day of publication is the date of posting information on the Bank's website. The Client agrees that while continuing to use the Bank's services (also not closing the account without performing transactions on it), he confirms that these changes have been accepted by him. If there is a conflict between the effective date of the unilateral amendments established by this clause and the effective date of unilateral amendments established by other documents that together with the Terms constitute an integral part of the agreement concluded with the Client, the term of this clause shall be valid.

2.7 When setting an individual tariff for the Client, this tariff takes effect in the period established by the Bank.

2.8 Along with the introduction of amendments to the Terms, Tariffs and other documents regulating relations for individual services of the Bank in accordance with the procedure specified in the Terms, the Bank is entitled to amend also the contract signed by the Client, including the Application-Contract, another standard document in the form approved by the Bank without obtaining the Client's signature, if such changes are of a technical nature (arithmetic, spelling errors, typos, omissions) or are performed in favor of the Client and have beneficial consequences for the latter.

3. Business Relations between the Bank and the Client

3.1 By using the Bank's services, the Client guarantees and assures that s/he has the necessary legal capacity and capacity to conclude and execute transactions, has all the necessary permits and consent of guardians, trustees, and for legal persons - management bodies, inspection and supervisory bodies, creditors and other bodies or persons.

3.2 The parties assure that the Terms are legally binding on them and are valid and they do not know any circumstances leading to invalidity of the obligations arising from the Terms.

3.3 In the presence of standard forms of documents established by the Bank for a particular operation, the Bank is entitled not to accept documents that do not conform to the established form and to refuse to perform the operation. The Bank is not responsible for the inaccuracy of the information in the documents submitted by the Client.

3.4 The Bank has the right to demand the translation into Armenian and notarization in a prescribed manner of documents submitted in foreign languages. The Bank has the right to photocopy or keep the documents, while not undertaking to reimburse the Client's expenses.

3.5 When using the Bank's services, the Client is obliged to submit documents and information allowing the Bank to properly identify the Client and verify the latter's competence to perform the transaction.

3.6 While identifying the Client, the Bank shall perform identification of the relevant document, the signature or person represented on it by visual inspection. The Bank is not obliged to use special means of identification and is not liable for losses and damage incurred by the Client as a result of transactions performed on his behalf, if in this situation it was impossible to establish that this transaction did not reflect the true will of the Client.

3.7 The Client may transfer the right to dispose of his Accounts to another person on the basis of a power of attorney approved in the manner prescribed by the legislation of the Republic of Armenia and acceptable to the Bank. When performing an operation through an Authorized Person, the Client is obliged to clearly formulate in his power of attorney his will to transfer the right to conduct the transaction on his behalf to a third party. In the event of revocation of the power of attorney, the Client is obliged to notify the Bank about it in writing (the branch of the Bank conducting the proxy operation). The Bank shall not be liable for losses incurred by the Client as a result of acts committed through the authorized person if at the time of such transactions the Bank (the branch of the Bank conducting the operation by proxy) had not yet received written notification from the Client about revocation of the power of attorney. The Client bears full responsibility to the Bank for the actions of the persons authorized by him. When submitting a power of attorney in a language other than Armenian, it is also required to submit a notarized Armenian translation of this power of attorney, and the Bank may, at its discretion, accept the power of attorney without any translation.

3.8 The Client is obliged to provide the Bank with the full data necessary for establishing communication with him/her, as well as to provide other information and documents periodically requested by the Bank in the course of conducting banking operations. The Client shall immediately notify the Bank in writing of any changes in the submitted data. The risk of negative consequences of failure to notify the Bank about changes in data in accordance with the established procedure is borne by the Client.

3.9 The Client is obliged to immediately inform the Bank in writing of all the circumstances and events that may affect the relationship with the Bank (including but not limited to changes in Client's first name/last name, organizational and legal form, residence, address, representatives of the Client and their authority, bankruptcy / insolvency proceedings of the Client, etc.), submitting, at the request of the Bank, substantiating documents.

3.10 The Bank shall deem credible the data on the Client in its possession, including those submitted by the Client, and shall rely on them as long as the Client has not informed the Bank, in a due manner, of the changes therein. At the same time, the Client is aware that the identification of the recipient of the transfer can be carried out by the recipient's bank, based only on the account number. Meantime the Bank shall have the right to verify the information provided by the Client in which connection the Client shall, by concluding the Agreement, authorize the Bank to make any repeated verification (necessary in the opinion of the Bank), for that purpose making inquiries on behalf of the Client with individuals and agencies possessing such information.

3.11 The Parties admit that any request, notification or other message arising from the Terms must be in writing, signed by the sending party and sent by courier or postal service to the last known address of the other party or from the last known email address to the last known email address of the other party, with the exception of cases where by law, these Terms or by mutual consent of the Parties, a different procedure for sending a specific requirement, notification or message is established. The Client's last known address, including the last known email address, is the last address provided by the Client and registered in the Bank. Meantime, any request, notice or other report sent by courier or postal service to the latest known address of the other party is deemed duly received (submitted) by the other party (party) starting from the seventh day after being sent, even though the party may turn out not to have actually received the notice. Any request, notice or other report sent by the Bank to the latest known email address of the other party shall be deemed duly received by the other party from the seventh day of being sent in the specified manner, or from the date of confirmation in receipt of the request, notice or other message to the email address within the said seven-day time period. The date of sending the request, notice or other report shall be determined by the date of sending the email containing such a request, notice or other report.

3.12 By submitting his/her data to the Bank, the Client agrees to receive information on the Bank's services, offers for concluding contracts and other documents by mail, electronic mail, telephone and other means of communication.

3.13 The Bank shall have the right to take photos and make audio and video recording of telephone conversations between the Client and the Bank, the Client's visits and the process of transactions on the premises of the Bank. Photos, audio and video recordings are kept in the Bank and can serve as evidence in the course of dispute resolution.

3.14 The Client hereby gives his/her consent to the Bank for accepting contributions from other persons on the Client's monetary liabilities to the Bank and relieves the Bank from any claims and liabilities arising from such actions.

3.15 The Client gives his/her permission and consent for the Bank to disclose to third parties his/her initials as a client of the Bank, as well as any of the letters of his/her name and/or surname, information on any account with the Bank without specifying bank and/or card accounts, account and/or card numbers. The Client undertakes to refrain from filing with the the Bank any claims and/or requests pertaining to the banking secrecy disclosed under this clause. Whenever the Client is not willing to have such information disclosed, the Client shall file with the Bank a corresponding application in a manner acceptable to the Bank.

3.16 The Client shall make the payments for the services provided by the Bank in accordance with the Bank's Tariffs. Moreover, currency conversion for the said service, if required, shall be made at an exchange rate set by the Bank. The Bank shall be entitled, without further assignment by the Client, to charge, without acceptance, the fees established subject to the tariffs, as well as the expenses made by the Bank as a result of providing the Client with services - and in the event of generating debts to the Bank under the agreements signed therewith, directly from the Client's Account without further assignment's by the Client. Moreover, the Bank shall be entitled to convert the amount to be debited from the foreign currency account at an exchange rate set by the Bank and to charge the conversion fee set under the Tariffs. Whenever the said service was not provided due to circumstances beyond the Bank's control, and the paid amount, including the commission charged, is subject to repayment to the Customer, the Bank shall be entitled, in the event of the absence of a Customer account in the said currency, to convert the said amount into the currency in which there is an account in the Bank in the Customer's name at an exchange rate set at the Bank upon such conversion and transfer it to the specified account.

3.17 The Parties accept that the bilateral and unilateral documents signed by the Bank and the Customer, including, but not limited to, applications, requests, consents, contracts, application-agreements, agreements, and, if available, the annexes constituting an integral part thereof, may be duly signed also by electronic confirmation, including through the Acrobat (Adobe) Sign system, and exchanged (sent) between the Parties in Pdf format, in a legible quality, to the electronic mail addresses specified in the agreement concluded between the Parties regarding the execution of transactions by Electronic Documents. In such cases, the moment of signing the document shall be considered the date and time of the last signature in chronological order.

3.18 The Parties admit that documents and data submitted electronically to the Client in the cases stipulated under the Terms shall have the same effect and legal significance as the original paper copies bearing a signature; they shall be deemed officially transferred to the Client and serve as a basis for performing transactions with the Client's accounts. In the case when the submission of documents is arranged via the Remote Service Systems, the provisions herein shall apply also to the documents received from the Customer via such systems.

Moreover, the risk of the legal consequences, possible damage, losses and expenses arising from actions (failure to take action) taken on the basis of the data (information) submitted to the Client (received from the Client) in the ways indicated in this paragraph shall be borne by the Client.

3.19 The Parties accept that in cases established by the legislation of the Republic of Armenia or by the Bank's internal legal acts, or based on information provided by the Customer, as well as the results of the risk assessment conducted by the Bank, the Bank shall have the right not to establish, to suspend, or to terminate the business relationship in cases where the Customer's conduct or previous activity is assessed as high-risk or contrary to the acceptable norms of business ethics. The basis for such an assessment may include previously executed suspicious transactions, failure to fulfill obligations towards the Bank, other institutions, or individuals, possible circumvention of legislative or regulatory requirements, as well as other circumstances that may adversely affect the Bank's reputation, financial stability, or compliance with supervisory requirements.

3.20 The Parties admit that the Client has the right to withdraw any time without any reasoning his/her consent given to the Bank under an application-contract for making inquiries with the credit bureau by submitting a corresponding paper application to the Bank in writing.

3.21 Whenever the Bank has received information that the Client contact data (including telephone number, email address, residential address, etc.) provided to the Bank by the Client no longer belong to the Client in question, the Bank has the right and the Client hereby gives his/her consent to the Bank for unilaterally terminating submission to the Customer of reports, notices or other information stipulated under the contract or other legal acts by using the contact data as specified by the contract or legal acts. In case of a failure to deliver reports (notices) as specified herein, the Client agrees to refrain from filing any claims with the Bank in the future due to the non-receipt of such reports (notices). The Client gives his/her consent for the Bank to process (collect, fix, enter, coordinate, maintain, use, etc.) his/her personal data allowing for the direct or indirect identification of the Client under the law of the Republic of Armenia "On the The details on the procession of personal data by the Bank are available in the Non-Disclosure Rules published on the Bank's official website.

The circumstances specified in this part shall be respectively approved:

- a) upon the Buyer's request filed in the event of non-conclusion of the act of transfer of the right to ownership and the Developer's failure to submit to the Bank and the Buyer the act on the transfer of the right to ownership within 5 days after the submission thereof to the Developer. The developer hereby declares that in the event of making a payment to the Buyer in observance of the procedure herein, it shall relieve the Bank of all possible and real claims pertaining to himself. In the event of any claim by the Developer for the payment of a forfeit penalty as part of the claim received hereunder, the process shall continue in a manner prescribed by Clause

b) under agreement on dissolution of the Contract on the right to purchase concluded between the Developer and the Buyer and the information received from the Cadastre Committee pertaining to the state registration of this agreement

c) an effective judicial act on the termination or invalidation of the Contract on the Right to Purchase concluded between the Developer and the Buyer, clearly specifying the payable forfeit penalty amount.

7.5.4. In case of furnishing evidence on the registration of property rights under a special operating bank account, a treasury or a notary deposit for another developer who acquired, in full or in part, the land owner's right at the Builder's construction address without any order by the latter, as evidenced by the supporting property registration documents (certificate of ownership) and a certificate of opening a special account (if the special account is not maintained by the Bank), which shall specify at least the account number, the currency and the identification data (in the amount of the pledged prepayments accrued by the Buyers having the right to purchase in the building under development on the landplot acquired by the said Developer).

7.6 If the amounts credited to the Special Account are repaid to the Borrower in AMD from the Developer's special account, the Developer undertakes to ensure that the Contract on the Right to Purchase, concluded between the Developer and the Buyer, provides for a consent that if, upon conversion into AMD, the foreign currency in the Optional Special Account, is below the initially credited amount, the Bank shall be exempt from the Buyer claim, and in the event of such requirements in the future, it undertakes to bear full responsibility instead and on behalf of the Bank and in case of the satisfaction by the Bank of such requirement, to unconditionally refund the Bank all the expenses incurred.

7.7 In case of a consent duly reached in the Contract between the Developer and the Buyer regarding the Right to Purchase the amounts credited to the Developer's Principal Special Account may be converted into the currency of the Optional Special Account in accordance with the instructions of the Developer for more than one banking day and transferred to the specified Optional special account.

7.8 The funds credited for purchase of property on the Developer's Special Account is performed upon presentation by the Developer to the Bank of a notarized copy of the Contract on purchase right and copy of the certificate of state registration of the said contract.

7.9 The first payment of funds for the purchase of property on the Developer's Special Account shall be made personally by the Buyer by submitting a Bank-approved declaration.

7.10 The field "the purpose of depositing funds into the Developer's Special Account" shall necessarily contain the Buyer's name, the code of the Contract on the right to purchase, the real property project number according to the list submitted by the Developer, the real estate address and a note on the first payment or installment

7.11 In the event of non-compliance with clauses 7.8, 7.9 and 7.10 of these Terms, the Bank shall not credit funds to the Developer's Special Account and shall undertake the repayment thereof to the Buyer. Moreover, before the repayment of the specified funds to the Buyer, no interest or forfeit penalty shall be paid for maintenance thereof in the Bank.

7.12 Refunds to the Buyer from the Principal Developer's Special Account shall be effected by submitting to the Buyer a claim and supporting documents in a Bank-approved format.

7.13 Funds into the main Developer's Special Account shall be deposited only in AMD. Monetary funds deposited in a different currency shall be converted at the exchange rate set by the Bank as of the moment of performing the transaction and shall be credited to the Special Account of the Principal Developer.

7.14 Revenues to the Optional Special Account may be effected solely by converting funds from the Principal Special Account at the rate established under the Tariffs.

7.15 The Bank considers prepayments made by Buyers to the Developer's Special Account as pledged in favor of the Buyer (as a security assumption) until the Developer submits evidence to the Bank that the funds in the Special Account are not pledged or the right to pledge is not fully or partially terminated.

7.16 The funds credited to the Special Account shall be forfeited by the Bank and shall not be accessible to the Developer for use except as provided for in these Terms and in the cases prescribed by law.

7.17 The Bank shall have the right to pledge or subsequent pledge (subject to the consent of the Developer and the Buyer for pledging funds credited to the Special Account in favor of the latter) in respect of all funds in the Special Account to ensure the fulfillment of all current and/or future obligations of the Developer to the Bank, unless otherwise prescribed by other contracts, the rules, the terms or the law. The Developer cannot deposit money into the Account in favor of a third party other than the Buyer, without the Bank's prior written consent.

7.18 The Bank provides the Buyer with information on the amounts credited to the Special Account in accordance with the Tariffs: the dates of receipts, write-offs and cash balances per property(-ies).

10.7 The Client acknowledges and agrees when entering Ardshinbank I-banking system that instead of the SMS code, he can use another Token App or software tool (Google authenticator), which generates a one-time unique identification code, and with which the Client logs in and/or two-level transaction confirmation. The client chooses the software tool himself and bears all risks, losses and losses associated with his choice.

10.8 The Client also acknowledges and agrees that if Ardshinbank I-banking system is available through the mobile application, PIN code, touch ID, Face ID on the mobile phone is used instead of SMS code when logging in and confirming transactions, except for the first login, in which identification using a one-time SMS code is applied.

10.9 The Client acknowledges and agrees that in order to deactivate/restore the selected and activated Token App or other software tool (Google authenticator), he must contact the Bank's Call center by calling 374 12 222222.

10.10 Ardshinbank I-banking users acting in the capacity of sole entrepreneurs and legal entities can change their passwords by calling the Bank's Call center or their servicing branch or by calling the Client's personal manager, or independently through the "Mobile Bank" system, entering the account number or card number and personal data. After proper identification of the Client, an employee of the Call center or branch shall ensure that a new password in the form of an SMS message is sent to the Client acting in the capacity of a sole individual entrepreneur or a legal entity. The person making the call also undergoes an identification procedure and can change only his/her password as a user. Whenever it is impossible to ensure the proper identification of the Client and (or) the user, the request for changing the password shall be rejected. The directors of Ardshinbank I-banking clients acting in the capacity of sole entrepreneurs or legal entities can submit their user password change or user suspension, and new user registration bids also via the I-banking communication tools.

10.11 The Bank has the right to unilaterally suspend the Client's access to the System if:

10.11.1 there are suspicions as to the illegal use of the System. The Bank shall assess the fact of illegal use of the System at its sole discretion;

10.11.2 within 2 months after submission of the application-offer for using the System, the Client does not complete the final registration and login to the system.

10.12 The Client shall ensure by its own means that the computer and telecommunications equipment, Internet telephony, telephone communication and other means necessary for the use of the relevant telecommunication equipment are accessible and serviceable by paying for the costs of their purchase, as well as the transfer of other payments and data transmission costs, arising from the use of the System.

10.13 The Bank shall not be liable for any losses and damages incurred by the Client in connection with System use provided they arise in cases including, but not limited to, non-compliance with the security terms of using the System, upon transferring/or making accessible to a third person the devices (mobile phone, computer, etc.) used/exploited by the Client for accessing the System and working therein.

10.14 The Bank may establish specific hours of for using the System, suspend access to the System and establish additional requirements and procedures to improve the security of access and performance of the System.

10.15 Procedure for performing operations via the System

10.15.1 In the event of acceptance of the Client's Application-offer, the Bank shall register the Client's users in accordance with this offer, upon which the Client can perform operations mentioned therein, as well as financial and other transactions available in the System in a manner and subject to terms set by the Bank;

10.15.2 The Client may access the services offered by the Bank via the System by visiting the Bank's official website (www.ardshinbank.am). The client determines the method of identification in the System for each user specified in the offer, and regardless of the method and means of authorizing transactions, the confirmation of the operation by the Client (the User) in the System via the available instrument is proved by a properly certified instruction of the Client with relevant rights and obligations.

The Client accepts that he/she can contact the Bank via the System in the version available for this instrument by submitting applications, letters, inquiries, orders. The Client is informed that the Bank independently decides on the acceptance or rejection of the submitted applications, letters, requests, orders, demand for additional information and/or justifications from the Client, sets the deadlines for their execution in the event of their acceptance, while the exchange of information is carried out via the System. Exchange of information via the System is equal to its exchange in person at the Bank. A Client - individual entrepreneur and a legal entity confirms and certifies that he/she has all the necessary powers and permissions to file applications, letters, requests, instructions to the Bank via the System. The Client hereby understands and accepts that by submitting an application-offer online, as well as when processing a corresponding transaction via the System, putting a confirmation mark and/or pressing a confirmation button on the corresponding page in the signature fields when submitting letters, applications, requests, he/she fully agrees with the terms, information and other provisions on the corresponding page, link and/or document, which creates corresponding rights, obligations and other legal consequences for the Client and has the same legal meaning as a handwritten signed document

10.15.3 The Bank shall verify the completeness of the data submitted in the Client's order sent via the System and, in case of the completeness thereof, execute such instruction;

10.15.4 The Client shall receive information about the status of the order submitted via the System from the "status" field of the transaction, while the transaction made by the Client (the User) via the System is deemed to have been performed only by the Bank reflecting its authorization information in the "status" field of such transaction;

10.15.5 The Bank establishes the due date for each transaction made via the System and executes the instructions submitted by the Client in such terms. Exchange of information via the System is equal to its exchange in person at the Bank;

10.15.6 The Bank may establish monetary, quantitative and other restrictions for transactions made via remote service tools. The Bank has the right to suspend or reject the transaction before obtaining additional confirmations satisfactory to the Bank;

10.15.7 The Client's assignment submitted in violation of the terms of the contract for the use of the System or the procedure for using the software provided to the Client shall not be accepted for execution. In that case, the Client bears the risk of adverse consequences arising for him;

10.15.8 The Bank may refuse to authorize transactions made under the System if, at the time of the authorization thereof, it turns out that significant changes have occurred on the financial and/or banking services market;

10.15.9 The limits, specified in the application-offer of the Client on provision and maintenance of the System or the Bank's offer for connection to the System, shall be standard limits. If other limits are set by the terms of the System, these limits shall apply and may be unilaterally changed from time to time by the Bank. The limits specified in the application- offer of the client on provision and maintenance of the System or the offer of the Bank for connection to the System, as well as limits specified in the terms of the System, can be changed also based on the Client's offer (in the form acceptable to the Bank) to change the terms of service of the System upon its acceptance by the Bank;

10.15.10 In the Client's application-offer on provision and maintenance of the System or the offer of the Bank for connection to the System, the maximum limit of transactions within one day shall be set unless otherwise specified in the specific field of the relevant offer and/or application-offer;

10.15.11 When providing services to the Client via the System, the Bank shall be entitled;

10.15.12 replace the software used in the System, ensuring the Client's regular work by the new version of the program;

10.15.13 to unilaterally terminate the Client servicing for an indefinite period without any refund, by giving the Client a prior notice, and in case of the impossibility thereof, an immediate notice in case of scheduled technical maintenance activities, as well as technical failures or other circumstances in the Bank, which prevent the process of providing services to the Client via the System;

10.15.14 to the System use by the Client if the latter has acted in violation of the liabilities to the Bank or the Bank has reasons to believe that the System is being used or may be used illegally or the security requirements of using the services are being otherwise violated;

10.15.15 Call for a further confirmation or explanation in connection with specific assignments. The System requests confirmation on the day receiving payment document. In such cases, instructions shall be accepted for execution upon receipt of the necessary confirmation;

10.15.16 to reject the execution of an incompletely submitted assignment;

10.16 to process the paper copy of the assignment submitted by the Client and approve it pursuant to the procedure of the performance of settlement transactions. In the event of using the Bank's services via the systems, the Customer shall

10.16.1 observe the terms set by the Bank for using the Systems.

10.16.2 avoid revealing to third persons the software tools enabling access to the system and the devices used/exploited by the Client (mobile phone, computer, etc.), use them only in line with the agreement on providing the System, and, in the event of communicating, or providing access thereto, willfully or negligently, to third persons, to incur the entire risk of the consequences not favorable to itself for the damage or possible damage inflicted upon the Bank and (or) the third persons.

10.16.3 in the event of issuing the assignments via the system, the Client shall check the compliance of the assignment given by himself/herself with the document provided by the Bank on the basis thereof, and in the event of any non-compliance, immediately give a notice thereon to the employee maintaining the Account to identify the causes.

10.17 The Customer shall bear responsibility for the accuracy of the information provided via the System.

10.18 The Bank shall not bear responsibility for the consequences arising from the Client's non-compliance with the security requirements in the course of the System operation.

10.19 The Customer servicing via the system may be terminated upon the initiative of each party;

10.20 In the event of termination of the System maintenance agreement upon the Bank's initiative, the latter shall give the Client a prior notice in writing. Moreover, the Client's servicing via the System or any remote service tool shall be terminated on the date specified in the notice.

10.21 The concluded agreement on providing services to the Client via the system shall be dissolved upon the Client's initiative via submission of the Bank-approved application-offer and acceptance of the offer in a manner established by the Bank. The Client shall pay the full monthly fee regardless of the number of days used in the given month.

10.22 The dissolution of the Agreement on providing services to the Client via the System shall not entail the termination of other contracts concluded between the Bank and the Client.

10.23 The dissolution of the Agreement shall not entail the termination of any liabilities that arose between the Bank and the Client before the suspension of the System unless otherwise agreed between the parties in writing.

10.24 The maintenance of the Bank's clients active in the system "Bank-Client" shall continue via the Internet Banking tool, with the provisions set forth in this chapter fully applying to the said Clients.

10.25 The Bank may release information about the results of acceptance of applications submitted by Clients/as well as the outcomes of bid reviews, as well as other Client transactions electronically, including by way of posting information on the relevant web pages or mobile applications maintaining the System, by email, in the form of short messages sent to a mobile phone number (SMS), or messages sent by the System's mobile applications (Push Notifications), etc. The data on the transactions performed via the System shall be stored in the Bank's servers and shall be treated as evidence for the resolution of disputable issues.

10.26 Clients having a Personal Manager, including Private, Premium, VIP clients, have the opportunity to apply verbally or in writing (including by any means of electronic communication) to the Bank (to the Personal Manager servicing the Client) for processing one or several transactions defined by the Bank and available through the specified method. The Client receives the order generated under his/her submitted application through messages (Push Notifications) sent via the mobile application of the System. The Client can confirm or cancel the transaction processing instruction. In case the Client confirms the transaction processing instruction via the mobile application of the System, the Client hereby accepts and ensures that the instruction is accurate, expresses the Client's will, creates corresponding rights, obligations and other legal consequences for the Client, and has the same legal meaning and force as a transaction made at the Bank in person or via the mobile application of the System.

11. Storage of Values in a Safe Deposit Box, Rent of A Personal Locker

11.1 An individual safe deposit box shall be provided subject to the conclusion of the Application-Contract, contract or any other standard form document in the form approved by the Bank. These Terms, Tariffs, as well as other documents of the Bank regulating this type of service shall altogether constitute an integral part of the lease agreement concluded between the Bank and the Client for an individual safe deposit box (hereinafter referred to as the Safe Deposit Box Lease Agreement).

11.2 The Bank shall provide the Client with an individual safe deposit box and the keys thereof for a specific fee set under the Tariffs, for the placement and storage of valuables. The Client shall keep the personal locker in proper condition. An individual safe is considered to be transferred to the Client upon the signing of the contract and obtaining the keys from the Safe Depository, in connection wherewith a corresponding entry shall be made in the visits register signed by the Parties. Receipt and delivery of keys by the Client shall be arranged on the basis of an off-balance cash order.

11.3 The keys to the safe deposit box shall be provided to the Client after paying the corresponding fees set under the Tariffs.

11.4 In case of the loss of a safe deposit box or damage to the safe deposit box and/or the keys, the Client must immediately notify the Bank thereof in writing.

11.5 The client undertakes liability for the loss of the keys handed to the Client, as well as the costs for repairing keys and/or lockers damaged while using.

11.6 The client is not allowed to duplicate a personal key.

11.7 The client is not allowed to photograph or make a video recording of a Safe deposit box or the Safe depository.

11.8 The client or the person duly authorized by him/her may use the Safe deposit box on the operational days and at the operational hours set by the Bank. In the event of authorizing a third person to use the individual safe deposit boxes, the Bank shall not be liable for the third person's actions on behalf of the Bank.

11.9 Persons affiliated with the Client may not use the Safe Deposit Box unless otherwise stipulated under the law or under a power of attorney issued to an affiliated person.

11.10 A Client can stay in the vault for no more than 20 (twenty) minutes during each visit.

11.11 The Client may visit the Vault no more than 2 (two) times within 1 (one) day.

11.12 The Client (the Client's representative) shall confirm each visit to vault by signing the relevant document provided by the Bank, which also specifies the time and date of entry. The Client shall enter the vault only accompanied by a responsible officer of the Bank, presenting an identity document, and in the case of a representative of the Client - under a relevant document of authorization, if it has not yet been registered with the Bank.

11.13 The Client undertakes to avoid storing any liquid, viscous substances, flammable, explosive or other dangerous property, as well as perishable goods, food, animals and is liable for damage to the Bank and third parties as a result of the storage of such property in the personal locker. The Client is aware that the Bank does not bear any liability to verify the values and waives the right to dispute this circumstance in the future.

11.14 The Client shall use the personal locker in compliance with these Terms and the significance thereof, avoid depositing in the safe deposit box any valuables linked some way or another to a criminal activity, and undertakes to hold the Bank back from any suits and claims dealing with valuables. The Client is aware that the Bank does bear any liability to verify the valuables and waives the right to dispute such circumstance in the future.

11.15 The Bank shall ensure the safety and inviolability of the personal locker and shall take all necessary measures to ensure the security thereof.

11.16 The contents of the Safe Deposit Box, i.e. – the information about the valuables and data on the Client's locker shall constitute a banking secrecy.

11.17 The Bank shall provide the Client with the necessary funds for independent use of the Safe Deposit Box and shall ensure the necessary conditions to that effect. Each operation of depositing the valuables in the Safe Deposit Box shall be performed by the Client in a separate room or cabin intended for that purpose.

11.18 The client shall independently, without any control by anyone (including the Bank), place the valuables in, and take remove them, from there in person.

11.19 The Bank shall not bear any responsibility for the loss of the contents of the personal locker or valuables placed therein, or for the loss of, or damage to, valuables upon their placement in, or removal from, a safe deposit box, or upon the relocation of the deposit box, unless such loss or damage is caused by the Bank's wilful action.

11.20 The Bank shall not bear responsibility for the loss and shortage of, or damage to, the valuables in the Safe Deposit Box, if such loss and shortage of, or damage to, the values was caused in the aftermath of a force majeure, i.e. - as a result of extraordinary and unforeseen circumstance, or as a result of such properties of values that the Bank did not know and could not have known taking the values under deposit, or whenever it occurred due to the Client's wilful or negligent conduct.

11.21 The Bank shall have the right to open the Client's safe deposit box without the consent and presence of the Client in the event of any of the following:

11.21.1 based on a decision by the Compulsory Enforcement Service, Ministry of Justice of the Republic of Armenia or any other competent government body subject to a court ruling issued in accordance with the legislation of Armenia;

11.21.2 if upon the expiry of the lease term of by the agreement and/or automatically prolonged by the Bank in a manner prescribed by the Terms, the Client has not released the safe and has not returned the key to the Bank subject to the established procedure;

11.21.3 In case of the non-fulfillment or improper fulfillment by the Client of the obligations to pay commissions for the service of storage of valuables prior to the time period set by the Terms and Tariffs if the, after the expiry of the lease of the individual safe deposit box automatically prolonged by the Bank, Client has not released the locker in manner stipulated under the Individual Safe Deposit Box Lease Agreement and/or the Terms and has not returned the key to the Bank in a prescribed manner.

11.21.4 in case of natural disasters caused by force majeure: (fire, flood, accident, flash of a substance stored in a safe box, a sharp smell and other cases where the further storage of an object in a safe box becomes impermissible)

11.21.5 the Bank unilaterally terminates the Safe Deposit Box Lease Agreement.

11.22 The Client shall return to the Bank the Safe deposit box keys provided by the Bank upon the expiry of the lease term stipulated under the Safe Deposit Box Lease Agreement, otherwise the Client shall take measures to extend the lease term and ensure all other terms of the agreement.

11.23 The lease term for a Safe Deposit Box may, after the expiry of the term stipulated under the Agreement, be automatically extended by the Bank in a unilateral manner in the cases and in the manner prescribed by the Terms, in the event of non-release of the deposit locker after the expiry of the said period, the Client's failure to visit the Bank and failure to extend the agreement with the Bank.

11.24 In the event of a failure to release the locker or prolonging the agreement after the expiry of the lease, the Bank shall be entitled to open the personal locker, apply measures to the valuables (if any) as set by the Terms and Tariffs and charge penalties.

11.25 The Bank has the right to terminate the Safe Deposit Box Lease Agreement unilaterally by notifying the Client and/or refusing to perform the agreement on the grounds specified in clauses 11.21.1 and/or 11.21.4, as well as in case of the non-performance or improper performance by the Client of the liabilities under the Individual Deposit Locker Agreement. The unilateral termination of the agreement provided for in this paragraph and/or its waiver does not entail the termination of the Client's obligation for payments (reimbursements) arising from therein.

11.26 The Client shall be entitled any time, by prior notice to the Bank, to terminate the Safe Deposit Box Lease Agreement provided the monetary liabilities arising from the relevant agreement are fully discharged.

11.27 In the event the Client does not visit the Bank after prior notice of a change in the address or closure of the Bank's branch (Client Service Department, hereinafter referred to as the CSD), where the safe deposit box is located, the Bank shall have the right in 10 (ten) working days after the confirmation message, without the presence of the Client, while ensuring the inviolability of the safe box, to transfer it to another branch (CSD) of the Bank.

11.28 In the event of early termination of storing valuables in the safe deposit box, the fees collected from the Client shall not be subject to return.

11.29 The further expenses incurred in the process of storage of valuables in the safe deposit box, which the Parties could not assume upon the conclusion of the agreement, shall be reimbursed to the Bank by the Client.

11.30 Further costs shall include, but not be limited to, the costs associated with the loss of the safe deposit box key, as well as the repair of keys or the safe deposit box, including lockers, as a result of their damage and/or the replacement of keys.

11.31 The Client undertakes to pay all fees provided for in these Terms, including, but not limited to, the fees provided for by the Tariffs, the additional costs, and to reimburse the Bank for any damage caused due to the individual properties of the property stored in the locker and/or a violation of safe deposit rules, and authorises the Bank right, without additional assignment on his/her part, to collect charge without acceptance the appropriate amounts from the Client's bank accounts.

in the Bank and, if necessary, to convert them at the exchange rate set by the Bank. Whenever there are insufficient funds on the Client's account, to collect the relevant amounts, the Bank shall be entitled nonetheless to collect this amount, generating receivables in the Client's name.

11.32 The Client agrees that in the event of the non-release of the safe deposit box in the period provided for under the Terms, the values therein shall be deemed to be transferred to the Bank for storage, and the rules on storage provided for in the Civil Code of the Republic of Armenia shall apply to the Client and the Bank without entry into a further contract.

11.33 In the case provided for in clause 11.32 of these Terms and in the event that the Bank acquires the right to open a safe deposit box without the Client's consent and presence under an agreement concluded between themselves, the Bank shall acquire the right to move the valuables stored in the safe-box to the Bank's depository.

11.34 The contents of the safe deposit box, as well as in the case provided for in clause 11.32, shall be returned to the Client or his/her representative upon their visit to the Bank, provided the full payment is made for the storage of valuables set by the Tariffs

11.35 The client undertakes to compensate for the damage caused to the Bank due to the peculiarities of the property deposited for safekeeping.

11.36 When depositing valuables, the rights and obligations of the Bank and the Client shall be determined subject to the provisions of Chapter 43 (Storage) of the Civil Code of the Republic of Armenia. Moreover, the Parties acknowledge that the written form of the agreement shall be deemed complied with.

11.37 By virtue of being agreed upon with the Client, the latter may be provided with safe-boxes for temporary use other than those specified in the agreement, during which the terms of the safe deposit box lease agreement shall continue to apply.

12. Custody Services

12.1 The Bank provides custody services for securities in accordance with law of the Republic of Armenia "On the Securities Market", the regulations and rules for custody activities adopted by the RA Central Bank, other regulatory legal acts, by storing Securities owned by the Client, registering and transferring ownership and other property rights to the Securities (hereinafter- the Custody Services).

12.2 While providing Custody services, the Bank acts as a sub-custodian and acts as an intermediary in a process of providing services of Armenian and/or foreign custodians. The Bank is not responsible for the activities and/or inactivity of Armenian and/or foreign custodians, including their decisions and rules, as well as their bankruptcy, operational risks, fraud, license revocation/cancellation, sanctions imposed on them, which may lead to negative consequences/losses for the Customer

12.3 The Client undertakes to reimburse the Bank for expenses incurred as a result of involving third parties (including those mentioned in clause 12.2) within the scope of the Custodial Service, including expenses arising from the cancellation of executed transactions, adjustment of income tax, and other similar expenses related to transactions with the Client's Securities that are not defined by the Tariffs.

12.4 For the purpose of providing the Custody Services, the Bank shall open a depo account(account) for the Client under the Application-contract, on which (sub-accounts) Securities are accounted per issuers and/or storage locations. The Bank provides services for opening, maintaining and closing of a Depo account in accordance with the Tariffs of the Bank. The Bank shall have the right to unilaterally change the Tariffs by notifying the Client at least 10 days before the effective date of a such a change

12.5 By signing the Application-contract, the Client is notified that the Tariffs published on the Bank's website shall apply to individual Clients who are citizens of the Republic of Armenia and whose center of vital interests is in the Republic of Armenia, as well as to Clients acting as a legal entity, whose 50 percent or more shareholders or participants are not citizens of another country, or more than 50 percent of the ultimate beneficiaries are not citizens of another country. For all other Clients, individual Tariffs shall be set.

12.6 The Client ensures and acknowledges that the Application-contract signed by him/her, these Terms, Tariffs and any standard document signed by the Client and accepted by the Bank within the framework of the Application- contract in the form established by the Bank, jointly constitute an Agreement between the Client and the Bank (from now on Agreement in this chapter). The Client assures that before signing the Agreement the Bank gave him/her the opportunity to familiarize himself/herself with the legal acts regulating custodial activity.

12.7 The Bank maintains Depo accounts in a way that it allows for segregating at any time the Client's funds from the funds of other clients and the Bank's own funds.

12.8 The Bank undertakes to keep a record of the term and essential conditions of each transaction related to the Client's Depo Account

12.9 Entries made by the Bank in respect of the Securities deposited in the Client's Depo Account certify the Client's ownership to the Securities. The right of ownership to the Securities transferred for custody shall be deemed to have passed from the moment the relevant entry is made in the Client's Depo Account.

12.10 The Client is informed and agrees that the Bank may execute transactions with the Securities held in the Client's Depo account, unless otherwise provided in the Agreement. Such transactions must be carried out with priority given to protecting the Client's interests, ensuring the full realization of the Client's rights arising from the Securities.

12.11 Ownership and other proprietary rights certified by, and arising out of, the Securities shall be transferred in any of the following three ways:

12.11.1 Based on an Assignment by the Client in accordance with the requirements of the Contract and the Terms;

12.11.2 As part of provision of investment Services by the Bank to the Client, in the form of a ban on trading and transactions on the Regulated Market;

12.11.3 By transferring ownership rights to the Securities, which shall not be the result of a civil law transaction and for which a court ruling or a relevant decision by the Compulsory Service of Judicial Acts shall serve as a basis.

12.12 Assignments submitted by clients shall have the following forms:

12.12.1 Securities delivery/receipt assignment;

12.12.2 Assignment for the registration/termination of the right of pledge submitted by the Pledgee,

12.12.3 Transfer of ownership rights to securities, which is not the result of a civil law transaction, based on a court decision or the relevant order of the enforcement service of judicial acts.

12.13 The Client may submit an assignment electronically or in paper format;

12.13.1 An assignment in paper format shall be submitted with a signature in 3 copies in the Bank's Customer service halls;

12.13.2 An electronic assignment form shall be submitted

- By sending it from the Client's email address to the email address of the Bank that are specified in the Agreement with a free-format message, maintaining the availability of all information available in the prescribed template of the Instruction and/or necessary for concluding the transaction (except for clauses 12.11.2 and 12.11.3);
- Via the Bank's Mobile/WEB application.

12.14 The Assignment shall be executed in case of sufficient funds on the Depo account and/or the Client's cash accounts.

12.15 In case of insufficient funds on the Depo account and/or cash account, the Bank shall inform the Client thereof using the contact information specified in the Contract.

12.16 The Client may submit a request for revoking the Assignment. The Bank shall satisfy the revocation request provided the Assignment or none of the transactions thereunder have not been yet performed by the Bank. Otherwise, the Bank shall inform the Customer of the rejected Assignment cancellation request using the contact information specified in the Agreement.

12.17 The Client has the right to give the Bank Instructions and/or Orders regarding those Securities held in their account that are in free status (not pledged, not subject to other Instructions and/or Orders in execution, and without other restrictions).

12.18 The bank has the right to close the negative position of the Client's securities account by any method not prohibited by law. The Client is obligated to reimburse the Bank for all expenses and losses incurred in this regard caused by the Client's fault.

12.19 Whenever funds are received by the issuer of the security upon redemption of the Securities and/or payment of dividends (coupons), the Bank shall credit the funds to the Client's account no later than until the end of the business day following the date of such receipt by the Bank of funds of the said funds.

12.20 Shortly after each transaction on the Client's Depo account, but no later than until the end of the business day following the day of such transaction, the Bank shall send a report on the flow on the Depo account to the Client's authorized address specified in the Contract. The report shall be deemed to have been duly received in a manner established under these Terms.

12.21 The Bank shall, until the 15th day of the month following the reporting month, send to the Client's address specified in the Contract a monthly report on the cash flow on the Client's Depo account and the tariffs applying thereto. The report shall be deemed duly received in the manner established under these Terms.

12.22 The Client's Assignment shall serve as a basis for freezing the transaction amount and commission on the Client's account, calculated with Bank tariffs for the execution of the Instruction until the moment of the execution thereof. The Bank shall be entitled to reject the Assignment due to insufficiency of the Client's funds.

12.23 The Bank shall charge commission fees specified in the Tariffs from the Client's AMD accounts specified in the Contract. In case of an insufficiency of funds on the AMD account specified in the Contract, the Bank shall have the right to charge without acceptance the specified fees from Client other currency accounts of the opened with the Bank. In case of debiting commission fees from the Client's accounts in other currencies, the non-cash purchase exchange rate effective at the Bank as of the moment of charging the fee shall apply. Whenever there are insufficient funds on the Customer's accounts, the Bank shall be entitled, for the purpose of charging the established fees, to charge fees in the insufficient amount, generating a receivable in the Customer's name.

12.24 The Client may, on his/her own initiative, request other statements of cash flows, applying to the tariffs, as well as an extract from his/her Depo account. The Bank shall be entitled to set a fee for providing other information requested by the Client.

12.25 The Client is informed and accepts that the market prices of Securities presented in the reports provided by the Bank, as well as those published in the Bank's electronic applications (mobile, web) are only for information purposes and cannot be considered as an offer, obligation or guarantee by the Bank regarding the execution of any transaction or its terms.

12.26 The Client's depo account shall be closed in case of dissolving the Agreement. The Depo account can be closed only in case there is a zero balance and the Client has no outstanding liabilities to the Bank.

12.27 The Agreement may be dissolved at the initiative of either party by giving a notice to the other party no less than 20 days in advance.

12.28 If at the time of notification, the Depo account has not a zero balance, the Client shall submit to the Bank an Assignment to facilitate the transfer of funds held in the Depo account.

12.29 The Bank undertakes to retain the Contract and Instructions submitted on the basis thereof, as well as other documents for a period of no less than 70 (seventy) years, unless a longer storage period is prescribed by law.

12.30 In case of terminating of the Bank's custody activities or revocation of the license, the Bank shall within 2 business days notify the Client of the need to submit a Securities transfer assignment. The assignments received shall be executed in a manner stipulated under these Terms.

12.31 The types of custody services provided by the Bank shall not be limited by the Terms. The information on the types of custody activities not defined under the Terms and the regulation thereof shall be published by the Bank on its website.

12.32 The responsibility of the parties for non-compliance with the requirements of the Agreement shall be stipulated under the Terms (Clause 15).

13.32 The Bank may, at the expense of its own funds, perform a securities sale/purchase transaction by concluding a securities sale/ purchase agreement with the Client or the Partner.

13.32.1 A securities trade transaction shall be concluded governed by the Civil Code of the Republic of Armenia and other normative legal acts regulating the legal relationship between the parties and the present Terms, which shall be an integral part of the agreement concluded between the Bank and the Client, and the Bank and the Partner.

13.32.2 In the event of a failure to perform in timely manner the liability under securities purchase/sell agreement, the Bank shall have the right to enforce a penalty in the amount of 0.1% of the total price of the agreement for each day of delay. The accrued penalty amount is payable in AMD at the average exchange rate set by the Central Bank of Armenia (CBA) on the day preceding the payment.

13.32.3 In the event of refusing to perform in timely manner the liability under securities sale/purchase agreement, the Bank shall be entitled to enforce a fine in the amount of 5% of the total price of the agreement for each day of delay. The accrued forfeit penalty amount is payable in AMD at the average exchange rate set by the Central Bank of Armenia (CBA) maximum on the 3rd business day from the date following the day of enforcing such a forfeit penalty. The sum total of all the forfeit penalties determined under the securities sale/purchase agreement may not exceed the fourfold amount of the bank interest settlement rate set by the Central Bank of Armenia, as well as the principal debt amount as of the present moment.

13.32.4 The total amount of all penalties determined by the securities sale/purchase agreement cannot exceed four times the bank interest rate set by the Central Bank of the Republic of Armenia, as well as the principal amount of the debt at that time

13.32.5 The Securities sale/purchase agreement shall define the party/parties incurring a settlement risk. Whenever none of the parties incurs a settlement risk, the given party may unilaterally postpone the day of the payment operation (remittance) to be made by himself/herself until the second business day following the reception of the full amount (bonds) subject to an overdue payment (remittance) by the other party (incurring the settlement risk).

13.32.6 Within the framework of the transaction specified in the sale/purchase agreement, the Bank has the right to apply a restriction on the Client's account with amount of obligation defined by the purchase/sell agreement.

13.33 When submitting an electronic Order to the email address, the Client shall send the Order from his/her authorized address to the authorized address of the Bank specified in the Application-Contract. An electronic Order received from another email address shall be deemed invalid.

13.34 In case of any change in the addresses specified in the Agreement, the Bank and the Client shall officially notify each other of the change in address in paper format (signed and/or stamped) within 10 business days after such a change is made, while the email address indicated in the latest official notice, shall be deemed a an authorised address.

13.35 In cases where, due to technical or other circumstances beyond the control of the Bank, the Order does not reach the Bank, is delivered late, sent by unauthorized third parties or by other methods that became known to them, including unauthorized access to the network, unauthorized use of passwords and other means and methods, the Bank shall not be liable for losses incurred by the Client as a result of such circumstances.

13.36 The Client may communicate his/her assignments and/or be informed of the receipt of the Order submitted by himself/herself via a phone call.

13.37 An Order shall be deemed communicated by telephone after registration by an employee of the Bank in the corresponding software in observance of all the details, and authorisation by the Client.

13.38 When submitting an Order in paper form, the Client shall submit an Order signed and/or sealed on paper (in 2 copies), on which a note is made of the day, hour and minute of its receipt by the Bank. One copy signed by the Bank shall be returned to the Client.

13.39 If the execution of the Order may cause difficulties and/or negative consequences for the Client, which the Bank may be aware of, the Bank's employee warns the Client by phone or email about the difficulties and/or negative consequences of the execution of the Order

13.40 If there are Securities specified in the Order, trading of which is suspended or prohibited, the Bank informs the Client about it by email and provides a reliable source for familiarization with the decision to suspend and prohibit the Securities specified in the Order

13.41 The Bank shall classify the orders received by the Clients depending on the time of their receipt and the place of conclusion of the Transaction in electronic form.

13.42 The Bank may unite Orders of Clients with identical terms and conditions.

13.43 The Client may withdraw his/her Order prior to its execution by sending a request to suspend the Order electronically from his/her authorized address to the authorized address of the Bank or by phone. If it is impossible to submit an application for suspension of the Order in electronic form, the Client may submit it in paper form in two copies

13.44 If the application for suspension of the Order was submitted after the conclusion of the Transaction specified in the Order, the Bank informs the Client about the impossibility of suspension in the same way as the application for suspension of the Order was received.

13.45 Upon receipt of a request to suspend the Order, the Bank removes the Order from the list and suspends processing of Transactions specified in the Order.

13.46 To avoid further disagreements, all telephone conversations between the Bank and the Client shall be recorded

13.47 The Client's Order is the basis for freezing the transaction amount and commission on the Client's account, calculated with Bank tariffs for the execution of the Order until the moment of its execution. The Bank has the right to refuse the Order in case of insufficient funds of the Client.

13.48 Immediately after conclusion of each Transaction, but no later than the end of the working day following the day of conclusion of the Transaction, the Bank sends a report on conclusion of the Transaction to the authorized address of the Client. The report is considered accepted if the Client does not object to the information provided in the report within 2 business days after its receipt.

13.49 The Bank shall, until the 15th day of the month following the reporting month, send a monthly report on the Client's cash flow and transactions to the Client's authorized address. The report shall be deemed to have been duly received in the manner prescribed by these Terms.

13.50 The Client may, on his/her own initiative, request other statements of Transactions, underlying cash flows and tariffs applied thereto. The Bank has the right to set a tariff for other statements requested by the Client.

13.51 For the services stipulated in the Terms the Bank is charging the fee from the Client set by the Bank's Tariffs. In case of insufficient funds on the AMD account specified in the Agreement, the Bank has the right to withdraw the specified fees directly from other currency accounts of the Client opened with the Bank. In case of debiting commission fees from the Client's accounts in other currencies, the non-cash sale exchange rate of the Bank as of the moment of such debiting shall be applied. If there are not enough funds on Client's accounts for making the specified charges, the Bank has the right to charge an insufficient amount by generating a Receivable in the name of the Client.

13.52 By signing the Application-contract, the Client is notified that the Tariffs published on the Bank's website apply to individual Clients who are citizens of the Republic of Armenia, whose center of vital interests is in the Republic of Armenia, and to legal entity Clients whose 50 or more percent of shareholders or participants are not citizens of another country, or more than 50 percent of the ultimate beneficiaries are not citizens of another country. For all other Clients, individual Tariffs shall be set.

13.53 Taking into account the type, volumes, markets and other conditions of the Securities that are the subject of the transaction, the Bank may set additional fees, by notifying the Client thereof.

13.54 The Client shall pay the transaction costs associated with the performance of the Client's Orders, which may arise in connection with the need for the Bank to conclude Transactions with the participation of third parties and ensure final settlement, in particular commission fees charged to the Bank by the Bank's Trading Systems and agents (except for regular and ordinary commission fees established by agreements with agents), etc., which vary depending on the trading system, type of transaction and other circumstances. These costs are not included in the Tariffs. The statements (reports) submitted to the Client reflect both the indicated expenses and the accruals and deductions made by the Bank for reimbursement. Upon a duly request from the Client, the Bank indicates, if any, the sources to obtain the information on commission fees specified herein.

13.55 To proceed to the performance of the Order submitted by the Client, the Bank shall be guided by the following policy;

13.55.1 The Bank shall undertake all steps to perform the Client's Order on the best terms possible for the Client, taking into account the price, costs, time of execution, total volume of the Order and other factors;

13.55.2 Orders submitted by Clients with other equal conditions are executed by the Bank according to the sequence of their receipt. At the same time, the Bank employee can consolidate and process the Orders under the same conditions;

13.55.3 If, as a result of market research, the Bank employee is able to satisfy the Client's Order at a better price than specified in the Client's Order which can secure a greater profit for the Client, and the transaction made at such a price will not cause any negative consequences for the Client, then the Bank employee may perform a transaction deviating from the terms specified in the Order.

General Terms of Banking Services of ARDSHINBANK OJSC	Effective date: 15.11.2025

13.56 The Client may submit a request for cancelling the Order. The Bank shall grant the cancellation request if the Order or any of the operations provided for therein have not been yet performed by the Bank. Otherwise, the Bank shall inform the Client of the rejection of the Order cancellation request using the contact information specified in the Agreement.

13.57 If the Bank is obliged by law to perform the functions of a tax agent for the Client, it shall collect and transfer the relevant taxes payable by the Client.

13.58 The Bank shall be entitled, subject to this procedure, to collect commission fees, reimbursement of expenses, interest, penalties and fines and any other types of liabilities of the Client to the Bank and at the expense of funds provided by the Client and/or from the Client's bank accounts, and the Client shall ensure the availability of sufficient funds on the specified accounts. Shortly after the performance/submission of the Order, the Bank shall debit the relevant funds from the Brokerage account, and in case of insufficient funds on the Brokerage account in this currency, the relevant funds are debited from the Brokerage accounts denominated in another currency, at the current exchange rate of the Bank.

13.59 Each party may dissolve the Agreement unilaterally, and the provision on the investment services specified thereunder may be terminated upon notification to the other party at least 10 days in advance.

13.60 Amendments and/or supplements to the Agreement on the Client's initiative may be made only by mutual consent between the parties by signing an contract with the Bank, which will be an integral part of the Agreement.

13.61 The Brokerage account shall be closed upon termination of the Agreement/termination of the investment services.

13.62 The Brokerage Account may not be closed unless it has a zero balance and/or the Client has no outstanding liabilities to the Bank. If the Brokerage Account balance is above zero, the Client shall submit an assignment to the Bank on relocating funds from the Brokerage Account.

13.63 Two (2) business days prior to the termination of the Agreement, the Bank, shall not having received any assignment to transfer funds, send a notification to the Client on the processing of an instruction to transfer funds using the contact information specified in the Agreement.

13.64 In case of the Client's failure to submit the assignment specified in the clause 13.62, the Bank shall be entitled to transfer the Client's funds to the transit account until the first request of the Client, and if there is a foreign currency balance in the Client's account, it shall be converted at the non-cash buy exchange rate set by the Bank as of the day of the transaction and transferred to the transit account.

13.65 The Bank shall be responsible for identifying cases of conflicts of interest within the investment services in the Bank and the management thereof, guiding itself by the policy of foreseeing sufficient measures aimed at the prevention of conflicts of interests, timely disclosure of possible cases of conflicts of interests and other principles enshrined in the corresponding internal legal acts of the Bank. Based on the Client's request, the Bank provides the Client with a full description of the conflict of interest policy. The Bank shall invest its best efforts towards the protection of the Client's interests and the funds, guaranteeing the segregated registration of the Client's funds as well as conducting an appropriate study of the counteragent before the establishment of business relations with counteragents as part of the Investment Service.

13.66 In order to prevent potential conflicts of interest between the Bank and the Client during the provision of investment services and to reduce negative consequences, the Bank undertakes to prioritize the interests of the Client, maintaining the principles of equality and fairness.

13.67 The Client is informed that investments in Securities are not guaranteed by the Deposit Guarantee Fund, except for cases provided for by the legislation of the Republic of Armenia.

14. Banking Secrecy: Legitimacy of Funds

14.1 The Bank shall guarantee the confidentiality of information which, by virtue of providing services to the Client, has become known to itself and which, under the legislation of the Republic of Armenia, constitutes a banking secrecy.

14.2 When, in cases prescribed by the legislation of the Republic of Armenia, as well by virtue of agreements concluded between other persons and the Bank (agreements on the provision of services to the Bank by other persons, merger, incorporation of companies, acquisition and/or disposal of assets of other persons, etc.), the Bank shall provide information constituting a banking secrecy only to the minimum extent necessary and to the persons authorized to that effect.

14.3 The Client hereby gives his/her consent that the Bank provide information constituting a banking secrecy pertaining to the Client - including information on opening and/or closing bank accounts, and any other information and documents - to the authorized government agencies of foreign states (hereinafter, the Authorized Agency) and/or persons appointed by the latter, and in cases and under procedure prescribed by law - to the relevant government or local government bodies of the Republic of Armenia.

14.4 To monitor the p of tax obligations provided by the legislation of foreign countries, ensure the proper performance of obligations, identify changes in these obligations, the Client must, at the first request of the Bank, provide the latter with any information, report and/or document in the form prescribed by the Bank and cooperate with the Bank

14.5 To ensure the proper performance of the tax liabilities under these Terms, the Bank has shall be entitled to apply a restriction (forfeiture) to the Client's Accounts and/or suspend operations on the Account by rejecting all orders submitted by the Client and third parties to dispose of funds in the Account and to conduct transactions, if there is a legitimate demand of the Authorized body and/or the person designated by the latter, without any additional instructions from the Client, to recover the relevant funds from the account of the latter and transfer them to the Authorized body and/or a designated person, and in case of a failure to perform or properly, performance of liabilities by the Client stipulated under the Terms - also unilaterally terminate the contract(s) with the Client.

14.6 A failure by the Client to perform or properly perform the liabilities under these Terms may serve as a basis for making deductions from the Client's funds when performing transactions in the banking system by other bodies and persons committed to exercise control over the performance of tax liabilities by virtue of law, including foreign countries' legislation.

14.7 The Client guarantees and assures that the funds credited to the Account are not related to money laundering, financing of terrorism or any other unlawful actions. The client also claims that the Account will not be used for illicit purposes

14.8 Under the norms of international law, sanctions imposed by international organizations and/or foreign states and/or the requirements of the Armenian legislation, including the law of the Republic of Armenia "On Combating Money Laundering and Financing of Terrorism", the Bank may, subject to a decision by the authorized body of the Bank, reject the transaction with the Client in processing the transaction, establishment of business relations and/or suspend, terminate the transaction and/or business relations with the Client and/or unilaterally close the Client's accounts or temporarily limit the conduct of transactions over such accounts until the Client, at the request of the Bank, submits/supplements the necessary documents for Client's identification, confirmation of the transaction or other documents, and complies with the Bank's requirements (for example, a ban on making and/or receiving international transfers via accounts in foreign currency, a ban on issue/service of international payment cards).

14.9 The Client is informed and agrees that the Bank has no responsibility in cases when the funds transferred by the Client or on the basis of the payment assignments submitted to the Client are blocked (frozen) subject to the norms of international law, sanctions imposed by international organizations and/or foreign countries, including funds with intermediary banks involved in the transfer process. In the described cases, funds shall not be paid, compensated and/or refunded to the Client by the Bank, and the risk of negative consequences of such circumstances is borne by the Client thereto.

15. Responsibility of The Bank and the Client

15.1 The Bank and the Client shall bear responsibility for a violation of the Agreement in a manner prescribed by the legislation of the Republic of Armenia and the Contract. The Parties shall not bear responsibility for losses incurred by the other party due to the exercise of their rights under the General Terms.

15.2 Bank is shall not bear responsibility for losses and damages incurred in the process of servicing the Client as a result of suspension, termination of services provided by communication companies, payment and settlement organizations, system operators and other third parties, blocking (freezing) of funds on the basis of acts of state bodies, norms of international law, sanctions of international structures and/or foreign states, the influence of force majeure circumstances, action (inaction) of the client, as well as abuse of rights and excess of authority by the Client. The Bank is also not liable for transactions made by the card in the event of death (liquidation), incapacity, insolvency or bankruptcy of the Client, as well as in other similar cases, if the Bank has not received written confirmation of these facts, and such circumstance affected the Bank's behavior. Based on the requirements of the law, the Bank determines the sufficiency of documents confirming the relevant facts, solely at its own discretion.

15.3 The Parties agree that, while servicing the Client within the Terms, without limiting the other rights of the Bank provided for by the Terms, the latter shall bear responsibility only for damages caused to the Client due to a wilful or negligent conduct by the Bank's employees

15.4 The Client shall bear responsibility for any damage incurred by the Bank (including lost profits), and hereby irrevocably instructs the Bank to write-off the relevant amounts from the Accounts without obligation and send them for settlement of such obligations.

15.5 The Parties shall be exempt from liability for violation of obligations if it is a result of force majeure, i.e. - the impact of unpredictable and irrevocable circumstances at the given moment.

16. Applicable Law, Dispute Resolution

16.1 The Terms herein shall be governed by the law of the Republic of Armenia.

16.2 Disputes arising between the Bank and the Client during the operation of the Agreement are resolved through negotiations, in a judicial or arbitration procedure. At the same time, the Parties undertake to thoroughly study the requirements and agree on any mutually beneficial solutions. The parties reach an arbitration agreement that the settlement of all disputes under the Agreement, at the request of each party, can be submitted to Financial Arbitration, an institution of the Union of Banks of Armenia (hereinafter referred to as the Institution) under the law of the Republic of Armenia "On Commercial Arbitration", and the Institution's Regulation and Charter (available at www.uba.am).

16.3 The Client hereby asserts that he/she is familiar with the law of the Republic of Armenia "On Commercial Arbitration", arbitration regulations, as well as the rights and obligations provided for therein, s/he has been given an explanation by the Bank as to the differences of the choice of dispute resolution methods, in respect whereof the Client has no objection. The Client waives his/her right to dispute such circumstances in the future

16.4 The Parties establish that when choosing the Arbitration Court, the Arbitration Tribunal shall be formed in accordance with the Arbitration Regulation

16.5 The Parties agree that upon opting for the Arbitration Court, the dispute resolution shall be conducted based upon only written materials without a verbal review.

16.6 In case of choosing the Arbitration Court, disputes shall be resolved subject to the norms of substantive law of the Republic of Armenia. The language of the arbitration proceedings is Armenian; arbitration court is located in Yerevan, Armenia.

16.7 As part of the arbitration proceeding, the Client shall be entitled:

- to turn to the arbitration tribunal for being provided with the corresponding translation (interpretation) services if they do not have a command of the procedural language;

- to change the subject and/or grounds of claim, decrease or increase the claim-based requirements until the declaration of the case review complete by the arbitration tribunal;

- to challenge the arbitrator whenever there are circumstances giving rise to a reasonable suspicion as to his/her impartiality or independence, in particular, when there are grounds to assume that s/he is, directly or indirectly, interested in the outcome of the proceeding;

- to challenge the experts and translators (interpreters) participating in the proceeding. In that case, the decision to challenge shall rest with the arbitration tribunal;

- to turn to the competent court, within 30 days after receiving the decision to reject the challenge, with a request to make a decision on challenge;

- to send, within five days after receiving the claim, a response to the claim to the Arbitration court, outlining their position on the submission by the Bank of the case to Arbitration Court and/or the claims filed;

- to file a counter-claim with the Arbitration Court (instead of a response to the claim);

- to get familiarized with the content of the case review minutes;

- to file a motion for incorporating changes and amendments into the minutes;

- to receive the copy of the case review minutes;

- to conduct the affairs immediately (in person) or through duly authorized representatives;

- to file a motion with the arbitration tribunal for eliminating the claim securement means applied by themselves;

- to file a motion for a third person's involvement in the arbitration proceeding;

- to turn, within fifteen days after receiving the arbitral award, to the arbitration tribunal by giving a notice to the Bank for receiving clarification for a specific clause or part of the award. If the arbitration tribunal finds such an application justified, it shall, within 30 days after receiving them, issue necessary clarifications. Such a clarification shall become an integral part of the award;

- to turn, within fifteen days after receiving the arbitral award, to the arbitration tribunal by giving a notice to the Bank, for a further award with respect to the claims duly submitted in the arbitration proceeding but not reflected in the arbitral award. If the arbitration court finds the application justified, it shall, within a sixty-day period after receiving it, issue an additional arbitration award.

The Customer shall, as part of the arbitration proceeding, have an obligation inter alia:

in case of a change in the address, to immediately inform the Arbitration Court thereof;
to submit, in a prescribed manner, the documents certifying the settled arbitration fees as an enclosure to the claim to outline in detail, in the response claim, which of the factual and legal circumstances they accept and to which they have objections and on what grounds;

in the event of filing objections as to the validity or applicability of the arbitration agreement, to outline them in the response to the Arbitration Court, indicating simultaneously the justifications; to submit, as an enclosure to the counter-claim, all the pieces of evidence allowing him/her to justify the circumstances behind the objections;

whenever the Bank submits a counter-claim, to file, within a five-day period after the reception thereof, a response to such a counterclaim with the arbitration tribunal, which shall include objections to the statements in the counter-claim in a manner required by the terms for filing objections to statements of claim. All the pieces of evidence justifying the circumstances behind the objections shall be submitted as an enclosure to the response to the counterclaim in question; to prove the circumstances underlying his/her claims or objections; to submit the original copies of written evidence or the duly authenticated photocopies thereof;

to execute the arbitral awards voluntarily within the timeframe specified therein. If no timeframe is specified in the award, it shall be subject to immediate execution; to execute arbitral awards voluntarily within the timeframe indicated therein.

In the event of the choice of an arbitration court, the Client understands that the Arbitration Court awards shall be final and not subject to appeal except in the cases prescribed by law. The Client undertakes to refrain from speculating and disputing his/her knowledge of the fact in the future.

The Parties agree that any correspondence, notice arising out of the Agreement, any correspondence deadlining with the existing disputes, judicial or arbitration subpoena, including procedural or arbitration documents shall be sent to the address indicated in the agreements/application-contracts and shall be deemed received by the addressee (delivered) even though the addressee may no longer be residing in the said address unless the parties have notified each other in writing of the change in their email address (location).

16.8 Whenever a dispute is subject to a judicial review, the Bank and the Client give their consent for applying an expedited judicial review, as well as a simplified proceeding.

16.9 Individual Clients shall be entitled to file the claim arising with the Terms with the Financial System Mediator of the Republic of Armenia (hereinafter, the Mediator) subject to the procedure and terms of the law of the Republic of Armenia "On the Financial System Mediator".

17. Other Terms

17.1 The Bank may transfer or cede to other persons the rights arising from these Terms without the Client's prior written consent.

17.2 The Client shall not be entitled to cede or otherwise transfer to any other person the rights and obligations arising from these Terms, without the Bank's prior written consent.

17.3 A failure to exercise the rights stipulated under these Terms cannot be construed as a waiver of such rights,

17.4 The Client shall, in case of a change of the postal address (location) inform the Bank within 2 business days of the new postal address (location). The risk of legal consequences of failure to notify the Bank of such changes shall be borne by the Client.

17.5 The Bank may publish the translated versions of these Terms in foreign languages. In case of discrepancies between the translations and the Armenian copy, the Armenian version shall prevail.

NOTICE: On the terms and procedure of deposit refund (for individuals and sole entrepreneurs)

Dear customer,

ATTENTION: Before signing the Deposit Agreement you are kindly requested get familiarized with the provisions of this document. The Guarantor of your deposit is the Deposit Guarantee Fund (hereinafter the Fund); address: 5 V. Sargsyan Str., Yerevan Republic of Armenia, telephone: +374 (10) 58 35 141; website: www.adgf.am. All the definitions within this Notice are in line with the definitions of the Law of Republic of Armenia "On Guarantee of Compensation for the Banking Deposits of Physical Persons" (hereinafter the Law).

Case of Refund

Your guaranteed deposit is subject to refund in the following cases:

- if the Bank is, in a manner prescribed by the legislation of Republic of Armenia, declared insolvent, and the incapacity to repay the deposits, within the timeframes prescribed in the agreement and the law is established by the a resolution of the Board of Central Bank of Armenia (hereinafter the Central Bank), or
- if the Bank is declared insolvent (hereinafter, insolvent bank) in a manner prescribed by the legislation of the Republic of Armenia.

Maximum amount of the guaranteed deposit and settlement procedure

The procedure for the settlement of guaranteed deposits is established pursuant to Decision no. 261-Ն dated August 26, 2008 by Central Bank of Armenia.

ATTENTION: All your deposits in Armenian Drams within the same Bank shall be deemed a single deposit in Armenian drams, except for the unguaranteed banking deposits, and all your deposits in a foreign currency within the same Bank shall be deemed a single deposit in a foreign currency with the exception of unguaranteed deposits.

In cases when your deposit with the Bank was generated as a result of one or more bank mergers with the Bank, each deposit each deposit of yours in a merging bank shall, in a manner prescribed by the law, be treated as a separate.

The guaranteed limits of the deposits are the following

The deposits shall have the following guaranteeing limits:

Currency Structure of the Deposit	If you have a deposit only in AMD within the same bank	If you have a deposit only in a foreign currency within the same bank	If you have deposits both in Armenian drams and in foreign currency within the same bank
			If the deposit in AMD is worth above 7 million AMD	If the deposit in AMD is less than 7 million AMD
The maximum amount of the deposit guarantee	AMD 16 million	AMD 7 million	AMD 16 million (only AMD deposit is guaranteed)	AMD 7 million (the deposit in AMD is fully guaranteed and the deposit in foreign currency is guaranteed in the amount of the difference between 7 million AMD and the guaranteed deposit in AMD)

If you have separate banking deposit in an insolvent bank and are simultaneously the holder of joint bank deposit within the same bank, you are guaranteed for the sum of your separate banking deposit and your share of the joint banking deposit subject to the procedure and in an amount prescribed the Law.

If you have a distressed liability to an insolvent bank, the refundable amount shall be settled on the basis of the positive balance between your banking deposit and the distressed liability. A liability shall be deemed distressed whenever you are 90 days or more in arrears of the timeframes specified in the agreement for the redemption of the principal sum (or a part thereof) or the interests thereof.

The joint banking deposit of two or more depositors shall be deemed a separate deposit of each depositor in the portion stipulated under the agreement. If the portions of the depositors of the joint banking deposit are not stipulated under the agreement, the joint deposit shall be equally divided between the depositors.

RU-1720.0.01	Page 35 / 41

The bank deposit shall be refunded only in Armenian Drams (AMD). The AMD equivalence of a foreign currency bank deposit shall be determined at the average exchange rate generated on the foreign currency markets released by the Central Bank of Armenia as of the date of the case of refund.

Your bank deposit shall not be subject to refund if your deposit is worth below AMD 1,000 as of the date of the case of refund.

Non-Guaranteed Bank deposit: Your bank deposit shall not be guaranteed if:

1. you are a manager of the respective bank and (or) a family member of the latter;
2. you have a significant shareholding in the respective bank and (or) its family member;
3. you, as a holder (shared holder) of the deposit waive your right to the respective share of the deposit;
4. your deposit has been declared as an illicitly obtained fund unless you have proven the contrary;
5. your deposit has been placed with the respective bank at an interest rate exceeding 1.5 times the interest rate stipulated under the public agreement of the bank for similar bank deposits (as of the moment of placing such bank deposit);
6. your deposit is placed with a branch of the respective bank established outside the Republic of Armenia

Procedure and Timeframe for the Refund of Guaranteed Deposits

Within three days after the date of the case of refund, the Fund shall issue an announcement on the case of refund. Starting from 20th business day following the day of such case of refund, the Fund shall, via the insolvent bank or any other bank, proceed to the refund of your deposits. You may file a written or electronic claim no later than within a three-year period following the date of the case of refund. In case of your failure to file a written claim within the specified period, the Fund will not provide a refund of your guaranteed deposit. The Fund shall make the inquiries upon the depositors' request within the three business days following the submission of such a claim in writing or electronically except in cases prescribed by law.

ATTENTION: For a smooth processing of the refund of your deposit, you are kindly recommended to immediately inform the bank of any change in the data (identification document, social security card, address, telephone number, etc.) submitted by you to the Bank upon the placement of the deposit,

Deposit yield

- a. "Annual Simple (Nominal) Interest Rate": the annual interest rate set by the tariffs serving as a basis for the Bank to settle the payable interests to the Depositor.

Simple (nominal) interest rate of the bank account: 0.01%.

Example for settling the interest paid under the bank account agreement: $(\text{AMD } 100\,000) * 0.01\% = 10 \text{ AMD}/365$ days.

b. Annual Percentage Yield or APY: interest, which a person shall receive against a AMD 1,000 deposit in 365 day, based on application of annual simple percentage rate, percentage compounding and payment frequency, example: $(100\,000 \text{ AMD}) * 0.01\% = 10 \text{ AMD}/365$ days.

The annual percentage yield (APY) for the deposit shall be calculated as follows: example of calculating interests paid at a percentage yield interest rate $(\text{AMD } 1,000) * 0.01\% = \text{AMD } 10/365$ days.

c. Under the law of the Republic of Armenia "On Profit Tax", the Bank shall, upon the payment of the interests accrued to the Depositor, act as the Depositor's tax agent and charge the profit tax amount to transfer it to the state budget.
